

Trauma Informed Sexual Assault Investigation in the Black Community Training

February 4 & 5, 2020
in Nashville, TN

The goal of this training is to enhance the capacity of law enforcement to respond to sexual assault crimes and support survivors in the Black community. Information will be presented on the neurobiological impact of trauma, societal and institutional factors that influence reporting and access, and effective methods for conducting sexual assault investigations.

- This training event is free to attend! Register by Friday, January 31, 2020
- Only open to law enforcement (sworn and nonsworn)
- Class hours: 8:30 AM - 4:30 PM

Register online at

<https://leim.wufoo.com/forms/w976cwx14aizdf/>

For more information contact: Rachel Apfelbaum at apfelbaum@theiacp.org or 703-647-6843

Hosted by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) and Ujima: The National Center on Violence Against Women in the Black Community, in collaboration with Metro Nashville Police Department and the Metro Nashville-Davidson County Office of Family Safety.

